

H.R. 5875, the 2010 Emergency Border Security Supplemental Appropriations Bill provides a total of $701 million to help address the threat of increased violence along the Southwest Border by strengthening border security and enforcement efforts. The $701 million is offset by $201 million in rescissions; therefore the total cost of the bill is equal to the President's request for emergency border security funding.

{loadposition left}